Washington, Jan. 10 .- Every phase of the war department's preparations Fort Newton, the pastor, who was formerly of lowa, made reference to his recent sermon in which he dealt with the question of drinking among American soldiers and sailors. He said he wanted the British to understand the American point of view. Americans, he added, hold that if the government has a right to conscript a man on behalf of the great cause, it has the right to conscript his conduct and keep him fit to do the work. "In America." he continued, "it is a criminal offense to sell liquor to men in uniform. On this side, of course, you cannot enforce this regulation. Of course, there has been a great improvement is done to the amount of the course, supply purchasing system. Mr. Baker admitted there has been some misfighting men in France were adequately equipped and armed, and that all sent would be. He took full responsibility for delay in approving a machine gun, holding that the value of the Browning gun now developed was worth it. He also said the superior weapon obtained by having the British Enfield rifle re-chambered for American ammunition compensated for the delay there.

The house bardly had adjourned before the suffrage champions began their fight for favorable action on the senate side of the capitol. Rethe necessary two-thirds vote could not be mustered, but encouraged by the house victory and counting upon influence of President Wilson ame to their support last night, the suffragists hope to bring the senate into line so as to have the amendment before state legislatures during the coming year. They feel sure at least of forcing a vote in the senate before the present session ends.

Advocataes of the amendment had seen supremely confident of the result in the house after President Wilson advised the members who called upon him last night to support . They were so confident that the lose vote was received with amazement. Some of the opponents were almost as much surprised. Wild Applause Follows.

When the first roll call was finished nofficial counts put the result in doubt, and before the speaker could make an announcement there was a demand for a recapitulation. Then the name of each member and the way he was recorded was read. Announcement of the vote was greeted with wild applause.
